TELEGRAPHIC. Fast Line and Tariff

THE TARIFF NOT THE ONLY COST OF THE FAST LINE.

IT MUST BE PROTECTED BY A HIGH TARIFF

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 14.—At the manufacturers' banquet, Hon. Mr. Tariff concluded a stirring address with what he called a word on the fast line. He said, "You will have it soon. The splendid port of Halifax will be the terminus in winter. The fast line must be the best. I am speaking what I believe. We have the shortest cut. We must have ships. Halifax is not the port for freight. That port is St. John, Halifax for passengers." He thought that Quebec, not Montreal, must be the summer port for this country. It must be protected by a strong Canadian tariff. "The voice of the nation, the farmers, the consumers, the manufacturers were stronger than any government and their voice for a Canadian tariff must prevail over that of any of the politicians."

GROWTH ENDED.

Winnipeg, Aug. 15.—The parade of Indian troops in Buckingham Palace grounds yesterday was virtually the closing of the coronation functions in London.

C. P. R. EARNINGS INCREASING.

Lord Hopetoun has passed through Winnipeg.

The social held on Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. Munson in aid of the Public Hospital proved an enjoyable event. The band enlivened the occasion by a liberal programme of bright selections. Within doors the programme served to introduce two performers new to Edmonton audiences, Mr. Stewart, of Vancouver, the possessor of a sympathetic baritone voice, and Miss Webster, who performed charmingly on the violin. Miss Richardson, Mr. Gruner and Mr. Harford, all local favorites, also contributed to the evening's enjoyment. The proceeds were $62.80.

The Methodist district meeting for North Alberta was opened at Lacombe on Tuesday, the 12th. The district extends to Carstairs on the south and to Sturgeon river on the north, and has over forty ministers and probationers employed in its various fields. A large attendance is expected as lay delegates are allowed of equal number with the ordained ministers.

DMONTON BULLETIN

SEMI-WEEKLY

Printed Monday and Friday evenings.

Subscription $1.00 per Year
STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

Barley cutting began last week, among the first to begin were R. Corbett, and G. West. Fred McLay and A. Corbett were also cutting this week.

We are about to be favored by a general store.

Two of our young people made a trip recently to Beaver Hills, to look around their future house, and see how the stock were getting on. Both came back looking well satisfied with the prospects of their new home.

Miss Maggie Young returned - on Tuesday to take charge of the school after the summer vacation, which she spent at "Murderville," Wetaskiwin. While there she viewed the spot where the murder was committed, for which Bullock was hanged last spring.

On Wednesday evening our boys held a dance at Mr. Duguid's, of Clover Bar. Owing to the ferry not being put in, when expected, only a small crowd attended. The music was good, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

PUBLIC WORKS

The force main on 4th street, is progressing steadily and is now laid to the foot of the hill. At the sewer, the excavation from Jasper avenue to the timber outlet is almost completed and the bricklayers have already commenced work. Between thirty and forty men are at work on these contracts.

At the power house the two wells are now completed and work is commencing on the pressure pump cistern. The smoke stack has reached a height of ten feet, and steady progress is visible in all parts of the work.

BARLEY CUTTING

Barley cutting in the first days of this week is reported, from Agricola, Hill St. Albert and Poplar lake. At Agricola T. G. Peaseau was cutting on Monday. At Horse Hill the Messrs. Corbett and Geo. West had finished on Wednesday and the Messrs. McLay were cutting on that day. On the same day barley cutting was in progress on the mission farm at St. Albert. This is quite as early as usual. Wheat and oats are reported to be changing color in favorable localities.

CRIMINAL CASES

Louis Tremblay, of Fort Resolution, charged with unlawfully breaking into a dwelling house and stealing a quantity of furs, was arraigned before Judge Scott on Wednesday morning. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years at Stony Mountain.

Chas. Sanderson pleaded not guilty to the charge of breaking into Wilson's store at Fort Saskatchewan. He will be tried next week.

A Wetaskiwin farmer named August Benz, was released on bail and will appear for trial in October. He was charged with the theft of a calf.

Rober Thompson was charged with shooting at a boy named Mattie. He pleaded not guilty and his case will be tried next week.

John Ross was committed for trial on Wednesday by Major Belcher, on a charge of stealing $61 from another half-breed named Thompson.

THE GENERAL HOSPITAL

The sisters in charge of the General Hospital offer their grateful thanks to the following donors who have been assisting them during the last months: Messrs. Chisholm, Dawson, N. B. Felton, from Chicago; J. F. Ferguson, from Lesser Slave lake; J. Gibbons, Indian Agent; H. Hetu, Geo. Kirkpatrick, Emile Rioux from Sherbrooke; H. Robertson, Donald Smith, R. Seccord from McDougall & Seccord; H. B. Smith from Ontario; Soutar from Morinville; Mrs. Lachambre, McIntyre, McNamara, Keith, from Clover Bar, Fairbank, Miss Kelly, the pupils of St. Albert academy, and all the generous contributors to the annual subscription just taken by the Ladies' Aid Society. As so many persons expressed their embarrassment as to what kind of gift can be presented to the general hospital, the sisters beg to say that anything at all will be acceptable such as either one single piece for kitchen, laundry, bedding, table, toilet use, or a few yards flannel, cotton, gingham, any remnants of carpet, oil cloth, etc; thread, yarn, hose, etc, etc.

Any visitors will be welcome every day from 1 o'clock to 4 p.m.

HORSE HILLS

With the fine weather, hay making has become general, a considerable quantity has already been put up, and if the fine weather continues, the crop will be enormous.

Barley cutting began last week, among the first to begin were R. Corbett, and G. West. Fred McLay and A. Corbett were also cutting this week.

We are about to be favored by a general store.

Two of our young people made a trip recently to Beaver Hills, to look around their future house, and see how the stock were getting on. Both came back looking well satisfied with the prospects of their new home.

LOCAL

The Calgary and Edmonton Land Company, Limited, is in liquidation.

H. G. Atkey is extending and adding a new front to the Edmonton Bakery.

The Edmonton schools, both public and separate, will re-open on Monday, Aug. 18th.

Duck shooting commences on Saturday, Aug. 23rd and chicken shooting commences on Monday, Sept. 15th.

H. W. Sussex, of Langwood, Ont., brother-in-law of Robert Hare, of Beaver Hills, is visiting the district accompanied by Mrs. Sussex.

F. Deplan, of Spruce Grove, will open his new hotel, the Fairview, on Monday next. Sports will be held in connection with the opening.

N. Willing, weed inspector, has been appointed chief game guardian for the Territories. He arrived in the district on Monday evening last.

Calgary Herald, Aug. 11.—Miss Jean Cameron, who has been visiting relatives in Edmonton for the past six weeks, returned home on Saturday.

Application has been made for a lease for grazing cattle on the northeast quarter of section 29, township 53, range 24, west of the 4th Meridian.

A picnic will be held at Agricola, Aug. 27th, on T. G. Pearce's farm, near the church. Football, baseball and other games. Proceeds in aid of church.

G. Dearing and Mr. Heckendahl, delegates from Hutchinson County, South Dakota, arrived on Saturday night's train, and left for the Vermilion district on Tuesday.

A party of landseekers who came up last week from Dakota under the direction of Mr. Rogers, government immigration-agent, left Tuesday afternoon for a trip to the Vermilion country.

Rev. Mr. Aldridge, Methodist minister at Fort Saskatchewan, went south on Tuesday morning to attend the Methodist district meeting at Lacombe. The new Methodist church building at Fort Saskatchewan is making good progress.

Ensign Mercer will visit Edmonton for the first time Aug. 14th, and Friday next, Aug. 15th, he will give a "Graphophone Concert," in the Salvation Army hall, Admission 10c. Do not miss it. The ensign will lead the meetings for several nights. All are welcome.

Kamloops, B. C., will hold an exhibition on September 24th, 25th and 26th. Kamloops is the business centre of the ranching country of British Columbia and is favored in many respects. A visit to Kamloops fair would be well spent time and money. The prize list amounts to $10,000.

The Pincher Creek Echo reports the discovery recently of a sack containing 17 or 18 watches on the ranch of Mr. H. P. Dunwells. On investigation they turned out to be the property of the Hudson's Bay Co. stolen some three years ago. They had been buried in a bank where they had lain until the recent floods had washed away the earth and exposed them to view.

Calgary Herald, Aug. 11.—Edmond Hamilton, of Strathcona, and Lance Sharp, of Edmonton, who have been in South Africa with the third contingent, arrived in Calgary yesterday morning and proceed north on this morning's train. Both were in splendid health and had not experienced a day's sickness since they left Canada. They were in the Hart's River fight and came off scatheless.

Dr. McLaren, of Hazel, South Dakota, arrived on Saturday night in company with W. Roger's party. Mr. McLaren is originally from Glengarry, Ont., and is said to figure as one of the characters in "The Man from Glengarry." He has lived in Dakota for twenty years, and has done well there, but has decided to remove to Edmonton. He has purchased farm land and town lots and will probably come here next spring.

Tribune: Otto Zwart, a young German, is in Winnipeg, on his way to Edmonton, where he will endeavor to secure a suitable location for a colony of Germans. It is intended, if the scheme is successful, to bring out about 100 German settlers next spring to take up government land. The difficulty in securing this class of settlers is because of their conservative disposition which prevents them from migrating unless they are sure of bettering their condition.

F. T. Gilroy, who for the past year has been in the employ of Messrs. Laroche & Picard, is about to sever his connection with the firm and leaves in a few days for Montreal, where he has accepted a more lucrative situation. The many friends of Mr. Gilroy will be sorry to hear of his departure. It is the wish of all his friends that he may have every success in his new undertaking, and that he will not forget to pay us an occasional visit.

On Monday next Mr. Donald Ross will leave for Winnipeg to attend the exhibition of the Western Horticultural society to be held on the 28th, 29th and 30th inst. Mr. Ross will exhibit, as the representative of the Strathcona agricultural society, a fine collection of vegetables grown in Northern Alberta. Any persons having specimens of unusual excellence would do well to place them at Mr. Ross' disposal, as this exhibit is a telling advertisement of the fertility of the soil in this locality.

Burglary at Maple Creek.

A Maple Creek despatch of Aug. 6th to the Winnipeg Tribune, says: The vaults of Dixie Bros., general merchants and private bankers, was burglarized last night. Entrance was gained to the building by forcing a well guarded window. The vault was entered by picking a hole through the heavy brick wall, large enough to admit a man. About $3,000 was secured.

The burglars were evidently green men as they left nearly $8,000 that was plainly in sight at their fingers' ends. There is no clue.

Will Fight Again.

Naples, Aug. 7.—Mr. Reitz, formerly state secretary of the Transvaal, arrived here to-day on the German steamer Kanzer. He said that nearly everything the English newspapers said about the Transvaal should be denied. He added:

"We were not beaten by British soldiers, but by abject misery."

"We will have war again in three or four years. Nearly all the young Boers will emigrate rather than submit to British rule."

"My brother and I and many other Boers are going to Madagascar."

Immigration Doubled.

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—The total immigrant arrivals last month in the West are 5,764, against 2,721 for the same period last year. Of the July, 1902, arrivals 2,721 are Americans. This is a very conservative estimate, however, as 25 per cent do not register.

BEAVER LAKE EAST.

Mr. Morrison, I am glad to hear, is improving fast.

Haying began about August 1st. Swamp hay is hard to get, but upland is pretty good. If dry weather continues, the sloughs will go down a good deal thus giving settlers a chance to get at part of the hay now under water.

Crops look well. Mr. Dan McCallum has barley ready to eat.

A meeting re petition to the Dominion government for half a million dollars for Alberta roads, was held in McAllister's store on the 6th. John D. McAllister was appointed chairman and A. B. Wood, secretary. A resolution in support of the above petition was passed and Rev. W. O. Rothney was appointed delegate for this district.

The Presbyterian Sunday school had a picnic on the grounds of Mr. D. McCallum on the 7th. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Miss Kate McCallum and others did their best to give the children a happy time and they succeeded.

A trip over the trail from Beaver lake to Edmonton has given me an opportunity to see the state of the roads and likewise to feel them. From the lake to the Two Creeks the trail is passable, there are a few bad holes, but they are rapidly drying up. Mr. Holt Swan, overseer in the Two Creeks district, has had a bridge put over the creek at the Pines. From Mr. Swan's to where the trail strikes the big ditch the road is extremely bad, though vastly better than it was a while ago. The chief cause of this improvement is the recent comparatively dry weather. There are about a score of very bad holes which could be made passable at an average cost of about $25 each. In addition there are probably sixty more that from $5 to $10 each would fix, if properly spent. The trail along the big ditch is fearfully rough, but this will be made all right in time, and there are no big holes to get stuck in. Practical men along the road gave a few pointers as to keeping the trails passable in future, suggesting the Dominion government refuses to make the leading roads good.

First, let the local government improve these roads and put toll gates on at reasonable distances apart, thus compelling all travellers to pay their quota towards keeping them up. Second, let the local improvement ordinance be amended, compelling local improvement districts to keep leading roads passable in their own localities, the local government to reimburse them for their outlay when in a position to do so.

Third, that settlers be forced to allow travellers to go through their farms or fix holes in front of them. In the latter case the local government to pay a fair compensation when able to do so. There are numerous holes right before settlers' doors, yet they are too mean to do anything to improve them, preferring to flounder through them, themselves to do something for nothing that would benefit others. There are a few exceptions, all honour to them, and a good deal of hap-hazard work is done by freighters and others, but this has only a temporary effect.

MACLEOD.

Advance, Aug. 5.

Mr. H. A. Mullins, cattle buyer has shipped 10,000 head of cattle to the English market already this season. He is anxious to secure 10,000 additional cattle if possible.

J. L. Ingram, foreman of Trachot's ranch, Medicine Hat, was drowned in the Saskatchewan river last week. The body has been recovered. The deceased was a member of the K. of P. society.

Messrs. J. R. McLean and Charles Thompson, who have spent the better part of the last two months in Montana, returned home on Wednesday of last week. They brought in with them nearly 500 head of horses, Percherons and Clydes, a picked lot, bought up in the Musselshell and Judith basin country. The animals were driven over without loss, three weeks being consumed in making the trip. The horses are being ranged in Jumbo Valley, nine miles north of the river, where they will remain until a market can be found for them.

The wheat and oat crops in this part are looking nicely. A shower of rain just now would not come amiss.

The prairie is beginning to show the effect of the dry winds of the last week or ten days, the grass, in high places, beginning to exhibit a brownish hue.

Potato bugs are said to be playing hole with the vines of the potato plants. If the patch affected is small, hand picking is the best method of getting rid of the pest, but with a large field a solution of paris green is the weapon used.

The Pincher Creek Echo complains that the seed wheat furnished the farmers in that district last year proved to have been very dirty, and that the value of this year's crop, which promises a heavy yield, will be greatly lessened.

Vancouver, B. C., August 6.—Serious news comes from Nanaimo that the new Vancouver Coal Company has closed one mine and is putting another on part time owing to the inroads made in the market by fuel oil. The decrease of demand can not be stopped, but an effort is being made to prevent a drop in prices. A hundred men have been dismissed.

WETASKIWIN.

Times, Aug. 7.

Miss Robinson, from Ontario, is the guest of her sister, Miss J. F. Robinson. They are spending a few days with Edmonton friends.

Nels Johnson, who was lately acquitted on the charge of murdering Peter Johnson, was arrested on Monday, charged with stealing a buggy, the property of John Hanson and Peter Johnson.

AGRICOLA.

The bishop of Saskatchewan and Calgary held service in Agridola, school house at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday last.

An organ has been purchased for the use of the church of England congregation which worships in the school house.

Some time ago at the request of Lord Strathcona, T. G. Pearce, postmaster and road overseer in this township, prepared a letter of information regarding the district, and forwarded it to the Canadian immigration office in England. Half a million copies have been printed for circulation there. As a result a Mr. Witham, of Manchester, is now visiting this district, for the purpose of investing in land.

STRATHCONA.

Plaindealer.

Excavations are in progress for an extensive addition to Douglas Bros' store. The new addition will front on Main street.

A solution of the coal question in Strathcona is in sight. Arrangements have been made for the delivery of "Black Diamond" coal from Big Island in barges at Walter's Landing. Bulk will be established at the water's edge.

Mr. J. H. Tranter has leased the store building lately occupied by W.C. Wood and expects to open up shortly a complete stock of clothing and men's furnishings. Mr. Tranter returned on Monday from the east with the stock to purchase his stock.

Rev. A. McDonald and wife will offer this week make their home at Ledgewood. On Wednesday evening after the regular prayer meeting in the Baptist church a little social farewell was tendered to the late pastor and his wife and they were presented with a fare well token in the shape of a well filled purse.

The McEachern brothers of Strathcona received last night a letter from the east announcing the sudden death of their brother Alexander near Owen Sound, Ont., supposedly from sunstroke. He had been engaged in farm work and had just come in to supper. He went upstairs and soon became unconscious and died within an hour. The deceased was about 35 years of age and unmarried. He lived at Strathcona and at Turnip lake, north of Edmonton for about three years, leaving here last Christmas time. The McEachern brothers have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Messrs. Phillips and Whillans were in town this week from Beaver lake West. They travelled the base line road and are strong advocates of it as the main highway between the two towns and the lake. They tell us that the trading of Beaver lake settlers this season is very largely with Wetaskiwin merchants owing to that burg being much better to that burg than any in this direction. The distance to Edmonton and Strathcona is less and prices are lower, but these things are unavailing when roads are impassable. Mr. Rutherford, M.L.A., has promised to visit Beaver lake in September and preparations are being made for a big mass meeting of the Beaver lake settlers.

MEDICINE HAT.

Medicine Hat News; Ottawa, Aug. 2.—With a view to improving the quality of sheep raised in the Northwest, the Territorial Sheep Breeders' Association has decided to hold a sheep show and auction of rams at Medicine Hat from Sept. 30th to October 2nd. As there are comparatively few purebred sheep in the Territories, it has been decided to allow two carloads of first class registered rams to be imported from Ontario for the sale. It is said that the purchase of the Ontario rams will be entrusted to Mr. Robert Miller, of Steinerville, Ont. In order to encourage the movement of the Canadian Pacific Railway has agreed to give free transportation on the rams from North Bay to Medicine Hat.

The Herald is advocating the erection of a grain elevator at Ponoka, claiming that the area under grain in that locality this season makes such an enterprise a necessity.

BATTLEFORD.

Saskatchewan Herald, Aug. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parker leave for Edmonton to-day, driving overland.

The C. P. R. have appointed Mr. E. Brokowsky to be agent for the sale of their lands in this district.

Some of the stringers of the south end of the bridge are in place, as is also the false work connecting the first and second piers. The material is coming in very slowly.

Mr. Falcon, whose farm is at the Eight-Mile lake, will cut his barley this and his wheat next week.

J. T. Callahan and Walter Salisbury have gone to Duck lake to meet J. S. Macdonald, superintendent of government telegraphs, and will install a telephone service between that place and Battlefords.

Mr. Mackenzie, engineer for the Canadian Northern railway, who with his party passed through town a few weeks ago, followed Mr. Armstrong's trial to a point ninety miles west of here. He is satisfied with the line as far as he went, and is now working back, marking the permanent location.

The new grist mill at Saskatoon was struck by lightning during the storm of Thursday night but with no serious results.

Elliott Gordon started for the railway on Wednesday with 350 head of export cattle. He will pick up others at ranches on the way.

Mr. Elkington, the wealthy Philadelphia Quaker friend of the Doukhobors, has placed a female school teacher in the Doukhobor village at Redberry lake.

On Sunday last was the heaviest hail storm ever experienced in this district, and but for the fact that it ran parallel to a line of farms instead of across them the results would have been serious, as the hail was in the form of cubes of ice an inch or more on a side, and at some places in its course was lying three or four inches deep two hours after the storm had passed.

PONOKA.

Herald, Aug. 8.

E. C. Price has begun the task of raising the roof of his store, making the building two stories high.

C. N. Wallace and party returned south on Saturday, having completed the survey of the correction line six miles east of the village.

W. O. Bates, H. S. Clough and F. Ferguson were in from Nebraska district on Monday. They are completing arrangements for the opening of their school.

John Rathbun is nearing completion with the school house in the Sharpesburg district. It ranks favorably with the many good country schools being erected this season.

The contract for the building of a school house in the East Side district was awarded to C. F. Wyers for an even $600. The building will be begun at once.

R. C. Laurie, D. L. S. of Red Deer, and crew of men are surveying a road this week leading westward from the new bridge for a distance of about 12 miles. Last week they surveyed a road leading from a point on the C. & E. trail about a mile below town west on the south side of Battle river and across Wolf creek.

THE FUR TRADE

Nature's products, such as timber, coal and gold together with grain, stock and dairy products would form rather an extraordinary list of economies on which to build even an Alberta town. Edmonton has more than these, for to this list can be added raw furs, the trade connected with which means a source of considerable revenue to the town and one which is fairly well distributed throughout the community.

Away back in the 70's fur traders, called at that time "free traders," in contra distinction to those connected with the Hudson's Bay Company, made their way across the plains to "Fort Garry," or Winnipeg, to sell the furs which they had bartered for goods, purchase the year's provisions, and to replenish their stock of merchandise.

At that time Northwest traders so far off as Lac la Biche wended their way toward the Red River. From the west came buffalo robes, from Fort Benton, and trappers and traders with peltries from Jasper House.

That has all changed. Civilization has come westward hand in hand with trade and commerce. So that as a supply depot for those trading in the Saskatchewan valley, Edmonton has taken the place of Winnipeg. More than this, the restless and adventurous, as heretofore have outstripped civilization and the trader is found at every favorable spot throughout the Peace, the Athabasca and the Mackenzie districts, from the "Bulls Head" in the Rockies to within a short distance of the Arctic shores.

The supplies for the trade of this vast territory are procured in Edmonton. The major part of the result of this trade is disposed of in open market here.

In 1902 the selection of wares differs from that which satisfied the native even twenty-five years ago, when tea and sugar were luxuries and flour was in the wedding cake class and soap was "looked at" with suspicion, for now the up-to-date trader carries everything in dry goods from ladies' conservatory and Stetson's cowboy hats to "boiled" shirts; in groceries from salt to canned goods; saddlery, hardware, farm machinery, drugs, phonographs. All purchased in Edmonton.

This does not include the supplies and produce of the fur trade carried on by the fathers of this industry, the Hudson's Bay Co., who formerly were alone in the "north" but now have opposition on every side. The supplies for their establishments which are imported and the peltries, which are exported, all pass through Edmonton and being carried by overland transport to the Athabasca Landing afford a considerable means of revenue to those engaged in freighting.

In addition to the overland carriage the water transport is an important feature. This is the means of affording employment to boat builders at the Athabasca Landing and gives occupation for the season to a large number of boatmen or "voyageurs" who navigate small crafts, carrying from 8 to 10 tons and propeled with sweep, oar and "tracking line," up and down the rivers not well suited for steamboats on account of numerous rapids and "falls." Below the mouth of Clear Water river, on the Athabasca, to Smith Landing, on the Great Slave river, there are three steamboats and from Fort Smith, that is the northeast of the Smith Portage to Fort Good Hope and Peel's river three other steamers are operating, all in connection with the fur trade.

The firms engaged in purchasing raw furs are the local houses of the Hudson's Bay Company, McDougall & Seccord, and the Blackfriars Steamship Company.

Of the outside houses Ullman & Sons, of St. Paul, have Thos. Houston as resident agent; McMillan & Co. of Minneapolis, who have a representative each season; Wilson, buyer for Herkowitz & Roth, of New York.

The mode of selling is competitive, but by private tender. The trader or owner of a collection of furs on his arrival takes his bales or packages to one of the dealer's warehouses where he opens them up. All the intending purchasers are notified and invited to inspect them. The buyers examine and grade and take count of every skin so graded in the lot, each taking his turn as the other has completed the sorting. When all the dealers have figured up and made up their minds what they will bid, their offer is written on a slip of paper which is folded and handed at one time to the owner or some one deputed for the purpose. The bids are read aloud and the highest bidder takes the lot for which he immediately gives his cheque, and the furs are his. In no case is a second bid allowed, it being clearly understood that the lot falls to the highest bidder at first offer.

Emigration from New York.

Toronto, Aug. 7.—Prospects are that 4,000 or 5,000 persons will leave the northern part of New York state during the next year to settle on the fertile prairie of the Northwest. To day over 700 New York farmers, wives and daughters were here on an excursion and sought information as to the mode of securing land as well as the quickest way of reaching the favored territory. The question of removal is being widely discussed by the farmers of northern New York state.

A MISSIONARY FROM LESSER SLAVE LAKE

The Venorable Archdeacon Holmes arrived on Thursday from his mission at Lesser Slave Lake, where he has been stationed for 16 years.

The mission is located on the north side of Buffalo lake, a small lake at the west end of Lesser Slave lake. The site, which was chosen by the archdeacon, is a very pretty one and admirably adapted for the purpose intended. The soil is a sandy loam and very productive. Good crops are now raised every year though at first this was not the case.

The buildings connected with the Anglican mission are; A church, log building, 24x30, with chancel, a parsonage (frame), storehouses and school. A new building 42x52 feet, two stories, is being erected for the school. As high as fifty children have been kept, clothed and boarded on the premises.

Pierce's saw mill which had been operating at Lesser Slave lake for some time, was purchased by Mr. Holmes this summer and will be a great convenience to the mission and those connected with it. It will be operated on the Heart river down which the saw logs will be floated.

The past two seasons have been rainy and high water prevailed throughout the country. This summer Slave lake is higher than ever.

Since the mission was started 16 years ago, great changes have taken place. Formerly there was little or no land cultivated and the natives lived mostly on the north side of the lake. They are now leaving and settling along the country drained by the Heart river where they are commencing to cultivate considerable land.

No frost has been experienced this summer. At the mission garden everything is flourishing. Though the season was not an early one and the first part was wet and cold, new potatoes were in use the second week in July. Before Mr. Holmes left on July 28th cauliflower, cabbage and peas were being raised.

The mission is about stationary. The work done on the road between Lesser Slave lake and Peace river last season was the best that could be done for the money expended, but much improvement is still required on this trail over which there is a great deal of traffic.

The Roman Catholic mission is located on the east side of Buffalo lake where they have a large establishment and excellent garden.

There are Anglican missions, with boarding schools in connection, at Vermilion, Peace river and Wabasca where the attendance respectively is 22, 9 and 24.

The mail service, said the archdeacon, is very unsatisfactory and worse than formerly. The community is sometimes without a mail for three months and suffers much inconvenience, inconvenience and often loss for want of postal facilities.

From McAdams' Point of View
McAdams, of the Sandon Paystreak, summarily committed to jail for contempt of court and as summarily released, writes as follows of his experiences. We have had the views of the judges regarding McAdams, it is only fair that the public should have McAdams' views of the proceedings of the judges. After an account of the trip from Sandon to Vancouver he continues;

We left Vancouver Thursday afternoon and arrived in Victoria Thursday night about 10 o'clock. Then the fun commenced. The sheriff's warrant required him to produce me (dead or alive) before the supreme court at the earliest opportunity. Of course the supreme court wasn't in session at 10:30 p.m.—that is, not in judicial session—and there was our old obese sheriff of South Kootenay with a desperado on his hands and no place to put him. The deputy attorney general evidently was taking no chances of losing an officer, as he had no one in sight to meet the wild man from the hills, so after groping around in an official uncertainty as to what he should do, the sheriff finally decided to take me to the county jail. I offered to stay at the Driard, but he had it put up that I should be handled about the same way as a stage robber or a man killer. It is doubtful if the Driard man would have let me in anyway. If he harbored the same superstition as the balance of Victoria folks he would probably fear that I would show up in the morning with a dead to his place. So I was hustled off to the county goal and chucked behind the bars in close proximity to my friend the burglar and other similar characters, of whom I will write more later.

As the warrant which the sheriff produced did not call for my confinement in a dungeon before trial this part of the proceedings was obviously irregular and gives me good ground for an action against the province. Some day when I happen to need a million or two I will just enter suit and recover the amount from British Columbia. That would be much nicer than the Victoria system of working the legislature for a grant of land.

Next morning Deputy Sheriff Sidall came around for me and conducted me to the court house. While I was waiting for the machinery of the law to get into action I discovered that in the eyes of the audience I was a Mollie McNamee, a Nihilist, a gun-carrying, bad man from the hills (and dear God, but this was the most unkindest cut of all) an American citizen. When I assured the rubbernecks that I was never in Patterson, New Jersey, nor the Coeur d'Alene, didn't know where the Haymarket was, had forgotten the Clan Na Gael grip and the Mafia pass word, and positively didn't have an inch of use about my clothes, the gang seemed very much put out, like a bevy of chawleys who had paid a dollar and six bits to see a leg show and learned too late that the living picture was on strike. As I am not acquainted with court procedure, the system looked a jiffle odd to me.

There was no jury.
No witnesses.

No lawyers except my friend the deputy.

No official court stenographer.

And I was answering to the full court for a contempt against it.

My kind friend, the deputy attorney general, started the ball rolling. He related the awful fact that I was editor of the Paystreak, and produced Mr. Sandlands' affidavit to show that that was so. I have been trying to get hold of a copy of that affidavit of Sandlands, but some way or another it seems non-comestable. However, I will remember the favor and may be able some day to assure my kind friend that I have not forgotten it.

The deputy attorney general then read a few lines from the Paystreak and dwelt long and knowingly on a precedent, something about a man in Toronto who made a public speech and got thirty days, or words to that effect. I don't know who the man was, but I hope he's not in jail yet. After this he quoted from several volumes of law, but I did not hear Blackstone's name mentioned. Then the court asked me what I had to say for myself.

I got up to declare myself. I related the fact that the peculiar case in point, of which I had been accused of commenting on, had not yet got to trial, although action had been started many many moons ago. I stated the relative differences in financial standing of the litigants, and dwelt on the catastrophe which overtook victims of the law's delays. From this I was leading up to a statement of why I published the article in question when the chief justice volunteered the information that what I was saying was entirely irrelevant. Had nothing to do with the case, whatever.

He reminded me that I was there because I had stated that the court was corrupt.

I admitted that I had overshot the mark, and consequently owed the court an apology and was willing to retract the statement.

About this time Judge Walkom said; "I do not suppose any judge cares what you say."

This being the case, of course talking was a waste of breath, so I sat down.

I learned my fate in thirty minutes.

Nine months.

And bonds of $1,000. Four of them at $250 each. Failing to produce which you can buy more.

Wouldn't that jar you. British justice, and it is 5,000 miles to the nearest port in Russia.

I have been reflecting recently on the blessed liberality of the press; also I have some interesting romances about my friend the burglar. I will write more later,

WILLIAM MACADAMS.

The department of agriculture of the Territories issues the following circular as to the special arrangements which have been made for the importation of purebred rams;

I am directed to call your attention to the importation of purebred rams, under government auspices, which will be carried on under an arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, whereby the rams (which must be delivered at some convenient point on the said railway in Ontario) are gathered and forwarded by carload lots to the West in charge of a reliable man and distributed at desired points upon the C. P. R. main line or branches in the Territories. The government and railway company defray all expenses over and above the sum of $2 per head, which must be deposited by the applicant. As soon as parties are in a position to make application to the department for the transportation of stock, blank forms will, upon notification, be supplied them, which are to be filled out and returned to this department, accompanied by the sum of $2.00 for each ram.

Flockmasters availing themselves of this offer will be expected to make their own arrangements, through friends, or otherwise, regarding the purchase of their rams. If unable to do so, they will, upon application to the department, be placed in communication with the secretary of the livestock association of Ontario, who will purchase for them stock they require for a nominal commission.

It is necessary for applicants for transportation of rams under this arrangement to make their purchases in the east prior to filing their applications with the department. If anyone desires to obtain the reduced rate in question, he should file his application at once, and he can then purchase what stock he requires in the east, at his convenience. As the shipment will not take place until the end of November, there will be ample time to complete such arrangements. Should he fail to do so, the deposit in the hands of the department will be returned to him.

As above indicated, only male stock can be accepted for transportation under the arrangements outlined, and no more than four head can be shipped to any one applicant at the $2.00 rate. The department will, however, be able to arrange for the transportation of purebred ewes also, on the understanding that applicants pay the full proportionate cost of transportation. All stock will be accepted for transportation at owner's risk only; but, every precaution will be taken to ensure safe delivery.

As the number of rams which it is intended to bring into the Territories during the coming autumn under the foregoing scheme is at present limited, application will be considered in this department on a basis of priority.

CHARLES W. PETERSON,

Deputy Commissioner.

PRINCE ALBERT.

Advocate, Aug. 4.

Kidd's roller mills are undergoing extensive repairs and alterations just now, preparatory to making an uninterrupted run when the new crop comes in. Grinding on last year's grain will be commenced shortly, when repairs are completed.

After balancing their books for the season, the Elevator Co. find that their business for the season resulted as follows;

Total receipts, $1143.78
Running expenses, 707.78
Net profit, $434.00

The directors are to be congratulated on being able to show such a splendid balance sheet their first year.

Farmers are busy haying now. An excellent crop of upland grass and pasture is reported, and there is not likely to be any shortage this year. Those farmers who have heretofore had but a limited supply of wild hay, have provided against shortage in a great measure by seeding bromo grass, etc., which produces excellent feed and a heavy yield.

Favorable reports regarding the growing crops come from all parts of the district. While the crop is, as a rule, from a week to ten days behind last year, it is anticipated it will be safely gathered before any harm from frost overtakes it. Three or four weeks of warm bright sunshine are all that is now required to give farmers a chance to save their crops in the best of condition.

Winnipeg Markets.

Commericia, Aug. 9.

Wheat.—The wheat markets during the past week have continued to decline daily with scarcely the least sign of reaction. Crop weather everywhere has been favorable, and the volume of trade extremely light. The consequence is that in the American speculative markets there has only been one way to the course of prices and that has been downward. The decline in these markets as shown by the quotations at the close of yesterday's business is 2c to 21-2 on the week. The cause of the decline seems simply lack of support owing to the fine prospects for the spring wheat crop, and also for the corn crop, the decline of 6c in the price of September corn in Chicago during the week having contributed to the weakness in wheat. Notwithstanding the low point which wheat prices for future delivery have arrived at the prices for cash wheat remain high owing to scarcity.

In Chicago and Duluth during the week cash wheat has sold at 4c to 5c per bushel over the September option and in Minneapolis, 9, to 10c over. This is owing to the scarcity of old wheat. If anything should happen to depreciate the present fine prospect for the spring wheat crop a sharp advance in futures would probably take place. At the stage at which the spring wheat has arrived, it would scarcely be possible under the most favorable conditions to improve the prospect further, so that "dry" change in weather conditions would probably be for the worse, and much may happen between now and the time when the crop will all be safely gathered. The demand from Europe for wheat has been very quiet for sometime but in the last few days a good deal of export business is reported from the seaboard. Broomehall reports bad harvest weather this week in the United Kingdom, and this, with small stocks of old wheat everywhere, and low prices on this side for future delivery easily leads to demand which again may lead to a reaction in the price of futures. The American visible supply only increased 361,000 bushels last week against an increase of over 1,000,000 bushels last year, and the total now stands at 21,973,000 bushels, against 30,369,000 bushels last year, and 47,554,000 bushels in 1900. The Argentine is only exporting now about an average of 50,000 bushels per week and will not have new wheat until January, the latest reports of that crop are not favorable. Australia has dropped out of the export ranks entirely owing to the bad prospects for her next crop and is now importing flour and wheat on a small scale. European requirements for the coming twelve months are estimated at only a little less than for the past year and America will be called on to fill the most of them, so that very cheap wheat does not seem to be a necessity, and it is not likely that the American farmers, who are all so well off will let much of their wheat go at low prices. The visible supply increased 381,000 bushels last week against an increase of 1,176,000 bushels the previous week, and an increase of 1,105,000 bushels last year. The world's shipments were 6,244,000 bushels, against 6,949,000 bushels for the previous week, and 8,397,000 bushels last year. The world's visible supply, according to Bradstreet's, decreased 2,152,000 bushels, against a decrease of 7,000 bushels for the previous week, and an increase of 1,273,000 bushels last year.

The market for Manitoba wheat continues firm, but the amount of business is small. Spot wheat is scarce. There are only three shippers in the market, but they readily take all the wheat they can get for immediate delivery, in store, Fort William. Prices have eased off a little under the effect of the decline in the American markets and at the close of this week we quote 1 hard, 75.1-2c 1 northern, 73.1-2c and 2 northern, 71.1-2c, in store, Fort William, spot or delivery, first half of August.

Oats—The market is weak and lower, owing to near approach of harvest. No 2 white oats are offering to-day at 40 to 40c in store, Fort William. Feed grades are worth 37 to 38c per bushel on track here. Street oats about the same as feed. Receipts are light.

Barley—All offerings are now being taken for feed 38 to 40c per bushel.

One Hundred Million Bushels
Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—The Free Press prints to-morrow its annual crop edition for the current season. It has been compiled by a staff of special correspondents, who have visited all the principal grain-growing districts of the west, and whose reports are supplemented by others from the paper's resident correspondents at various points. Statistical information on subjects related to that of the harvest is added in an introductory article the Free Press says—

"In preparing these statements and forecasts the Free Press writers were careful to keep well within the facts. The descriptions given of the fields are no fancy pictures, conjured up by the imagination, but are the result of actual observations. In every case writers and correspondents were instructed to take a conservative view, and that they have done so is illustrated in a notable manner by our Regina correspondent, whose estimate of the wheat output of the Territories is two million bushels less than that of the official forecast of the department of agriculture.

These reports show that the wheat acreage of the west is pretty much what it was last season. The increase has been small. According to official figures it is now 2,039,940 acres in Manitoba, an increase of 25,105 acres.

In the Territories 554,697 acres, an increase of 80,291 acres. This makes a total of 2,624,637 acres sown to wheat.

The reports from all sections are practically agreed that the crops are every whit as good as they were last year, when there was an average of 25 bushels to the acre. The reasoning was sound in Dr. Christie's case, for a more faithful and sterling representative no constituency, ever had.

Frank Coal Mines.

Sentinel around the mine this week things have been moving along much the same as before the recent floods broke up the routine. Plenty of cars are being run in to handle the output, which is now averaging over 700 tons daily.

An electric haulage system is to be installed in the mine at once, which will greatly facilitate the getting out of the coal, being a decided improvement over the system now in use and will enable the company to increase the mine's output.

The main entry of the mine is now in a distance of over 4000 feet and is being pushed, thus adding to the already enormous amount of coal in sight and making room for additional miners. A force of over 200 men are now employed.

General Manager Gebo, who returned from Europe last week, has again taken over the management of the company's interest here, and already the good effect of it is noticeable around the camp.

Canadian Northern Rumor.

Winnipeg Tribune. The Tribune was informed this afternoon, too late to secure official confirmation, or denial, that it is not expected that the Canadian Northern will be completed, and put in such shape as to enable the company to handle its share of this season's crop over the Rainy River section. In anticipation of this, however, it is said that the company has made arrangements with Jim Hill of the Great Northern to send all the wheat gathered off the Manitoba lines, to Duluth over the Hill system.

The fact that the company has recently effected a connection with the Great Northern at Emerson would tend to strengthen the statement that the wheat is to go that way. Of course, it is well known that the Rainy River section is still in a very incomplete condition.

Steel Combine.

London, Friday, Aug. 8.—The Birmingham correspondent of the Times confirms the report from Montreal of the formation of an Anglo-Canadian steel combination. It includes Guest, Keen and Company, Boekow, Vaughan and Company, Sir Christopher Furness and the Dominion Iron and Steel Company.

Arrangements are contemplated with the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk railways and the new British-Canadian steamship service.

It is uncertain yet whether a single company or a pooling arrangement will be effected.

Natal Wants Farmers.

Pietermaritzburg, Aug. 7.—An important report by the surveyor-general and director of agriculture estimates that 10,000 white farmers are necessary in order to enable Natal to supply her own agricultural needs and declares that preference should be given to small farmers willing to work with their own hands.

The report recommends the leasing of government lands at rentals equal to 3 per cent. of their unimproved value, and also advocates assisted immigration and grants of money to encourage agricultural development along various lines.

A Census of Ages.

Bulletin No. 10, has been issued by Census Commissioner Blue, it is a census of ages, and affords, in its various tables, an interesting study of the ages of the people of the Dominion.

In the proportion per 1000, of persons under ten years of age the Northwest Territories leads all the provinces, Manitoba, British Columbia, and the Territories are the regions of young men, the proportion of men between the ages of 20 and 45 being in these provinces comparatively large. The most remarkable showing of the bulletin lies, however, in the decrease in the proportion of infants in Ontario and Prince Edward Island, although no decrease in the number of the married population is to be noted.

The Late Dr. Christie, M.P.
Globe; The death of Dr. Christie, the representative of Argenteuil in the federal parliament, removes from the house one of its older members, whose name was associated with some of the severest political contests in one history of the province of Quebec. Dr. Christie and Hon. J. J. C. (afterwards Sir John) Abbott were more than once pitted against each other, and the struggles between the able lawyer and the popular, canny Scotch doctor were fierce. Since 1871 Mr. Christie had held the seat easily. He was a quiet, kindly old man, and his chief strength with his constituents was his known devotion to duty. He was the Doctor McClure, of Argenteuil. No distance was too great nor night too wild, dark or cold to cause him to hesitate, even a moment, when the call from a bedside reached him. It was this fidelity to professional duty that fixed him in the regard of his neighbors, and who shall say that it was not a good standard by which to judge a parliamentary representative?—for the man who shows devotion to duty in one field of action is likely to be equally conscientious in others. The reasoning was sound in Dr. Christie's case, for a more faithful and sterling representative no constituency, ever had.

HARVEST HANDS.

With the approach of harvest and the assurance of a heavy yield the question of harvest help becomes pressing. The demand for labor on the railway and on building operations and the waterworks in town has taken up such a large part of the visible labor supply that there seems likely to be a scarcity of harvesters, and especially of men skilled in that work. Farmers are anxiously enquiring as to the possibility of securing help from the harvest excursions now being planned. So far it appears that no arrangement is being made to extend the excursions to Edmonton. But no doubt if farmers who need help would agree to employ a certain number of men the C. P. R. would send the men along provided they were willing to go. As may have been noted in the advertisement copied into the Bulletin recently men are only ticketed to Winnipeg. From Winnipeg they are ticketed to whatever point the demand comes from. The farmers in each locality are expected to take steps to decide how many men are wanted at each railway point and to let the C. P. R. authorities in Winnipeg know by delegate or otherwise. If the Edmonton farmers do this no doubt they will be considered as well as those at other points, provided they speak in time. But they must speak quick or they will be too late. The C. P. R. only agrees to send the men as far west as Moose Jaw, but this need not interfere with their filling a definite demand at a point still further west. The matter rests with the farmers themselves, but whatever is done must be done quickly.

ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING.

Contributed.

That Methodism is progressing somewhat rapidly in Northern Alberta might be seen from the large number of ministers and probationers that met together with several laymen at Lacombe during the past week. The occasion was the financial district meeting, an annual institution, at which a review of the work is undertaken, estimate for financial support of the ministry considered, and grants from the missionary fund recommended for the several missions. Already a good number of fields have become circuits, that is, are self-sustaining, and many others have raised their estimates so as to ask less aid as they march along to independence. Dr. Woodworth and Dr. L. Gaetz were both present at the sessions and greatly encouraged the younger men, by their words of earnestness and sobriety in the great questions that naturally come up for discussion at such gatherings.

The evening meetings were well attended. On Tuesday evening Dr. Woodworth preached and an after service was conducted by Rev. Thos. Buchanan, at which the ministers and a large number of the congregation re-consecrated their lives and service to the great master.

Arrangements were made for the holding of conventions during the coming winter.

The next regular meeting of the district will be held at Strathcona, May, 1903.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN FAIR.

For Saskatchewan annual fair was held on Wednesday and Thursday last on the agricultural society's grounds. The weather was ideal and there was a large attendance, both from the surrounding country and from Edmonton and Strathcona. Judging from the results of this season the summer fair has come to be an established success in this district as compared with the fall fair. In many ways the advantage is with the fall fair, particularly in showing the results of the season's growth in grain and vegetables, but although the weather in the fall is just as likely to be good and the roads better, people simply have not time to prepare exhibits or even to attend. Too much of the results of the season's work hangs on one or two days in the fall to admit of a day being lost even on the praiseworthy object of the fair. In July or the first half of August is the time of least stress in farm work, and if ever time can be spared for the purposes of a fair it is then. It takes some time for people to become accustomed to the idea of a summer instead of a fall fair but once they do, there is no doubt of the success that will be achieved. As yet however, the number of exhibitors is disappointing.

The exhibit in the hall included in grain and grass live samples of wheat, three of oats, three of barley, ripe, three of timothy and one of bromegrass.

In threshed grain there were four samples of spring wheat, one of fall wheat, two of oats, three of barley and two of timothy.

T. N. Willing, weed inspector, had his display of noxious weeds on view.

There was also a very fine collection of native wild flowers.

The show of vegetables was very good and included fine exhibits of well grown potatoes, with lettuce and cabbage well headed, fine celery, rhubarb and onions, large ripe cucumbers and several vegetable marrow.

There was a fair show of butter, but not much competition in bread and jam.

Some very fancy work was shown, but the display was not large. Two cages of canaries were exhibited.

The show of cattle, sheep and hogs was very limited, but that of horses was good.

The racing and baseball events were the main attractions.

Several lunch tents were on the grounds, and the ladies of St. George's church held a successful sale of fancy work.

PUREBED STOCK.

Wm. Sharman, representing the purebred cattle breeders' association of Manitoba, arrived on Tuesday's train to attend the Fort Saskatchewan fair. During the present season Mr. Sharman brought 70 head of purebred cattle, chiefly bulls, into the Territories from Manitoba. They included Shorthorns, Herefords, Polled Angus, and Ayshires. The Ayshires all went up the Prince Albert line. One car of Shorthorns and Herefords came up the C. & E. These included a few cows for Jas. Tough, of Long Lake. The railway company has made it very convenient for handling this class of stock. They allow a car load to be picked up at various points along any line, and to be distributed in any way. Ordinarily the railway will only load a car at one point and unload it at another, but they let that rule slide in the interests of thoroughbred stock.

Mr. Sharman has just come from the Regina exhibition. There was a large attendance but the show of stock was small. People were too busy with their summer fairs and with haying to take the necessary trouble with their stock. Four men showed Shorthorns and two showed Herefords. There was no competition in grade cattle. No sheep were shown, and the show of hogs was much smaller than at Edmonton, although some good animals were shown.

Speaking of the crops, the Regina and Moose Jaw districts bid fair to have an even larger crop than last year. They are heavier but not so far advanced as in Manitoba.

THE SPUR LINE.

The work of surfacing the spur line is now in progress, about forty men being employed. It is expected the road will be ready to carry a train about Sept. 1st.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.

On Sunday afternoon a young man named John Thompson, was drowned while bathing in Poplar Slough, at Rosedale.

BRITISH AID FOR FAST LINE.

London, Aug. 7.—It is understood Mr. Chamberlain has agreed to urge the British cabinet to contribute one-half whatever Canada contributes towards the new fast mail service, which, in case of the acceptance of the Canadian Pacific service, means a British subsidy of £88,000 and a Canadian subsidy of £17,000. In case the Alians and Elder-Dempster offer is accepted, the proportions will be British £100,000 and Canadian £200,000. The statements being put about in interested quarters that Mr. Chamberlain declared he would never assent to one penny of a British subsidy for a Canadian Pacific service are absolutely untrue. Mr. Chamberlain's only desire is to see efficiency secured on lines acceptable to the Canadian ministers.

The question of organizing an Australian-Canadian shipping combine for a service between Canada, England, Australia, and South Africa, to compete with the American combine organized by J. P. Morgan was again the subject of a prolonged conference today between the Australian premiers and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other Canadian ministers. No definite conclusion, it appears, has been reached concerning the project.

Mr. Hon. C. T. Ritchie, secretary of state for the home department, replying to a question of Gen. J. W. Laurie in the House of Commons to day, said he was not aware of any arrangement to invite tenders in connection with a Canadian fast line of steamships.

J. McLean was appointed town scavenger in the place of F. Kramer, resigned.

The report of the finance committee was presented and the following accounts were passed:

The council then adjourned.

THE MARKETS.

Butter, 10c to 15c;
Eggs, 12-1/2c to 15c;
Potaes, new, $1.00 per bag.

The local grain market is sluggish, few sales being reported. Oats run from 22c to 25c, and wheat from 40c, for second quality to 55c for No. 1.

Hay is selling to-day at from $5 to $7 per ton.

FUR SALES.

Ben. Hursell's lot was disposed of on Tuesday to T. Hourston for $4,550.00, Colin Fraser's lot No. 1, went to Ross Bros. for $12,250.

BIRTHS.

MARRIAGES.

Altom.—Osbaldeston—The residence of the bride's parents, Partridge Hill on Aug. 6th, 1902, by Rev. A. R. Aldridge, B. A., Robert Wesley A'ton and Emma Osbaldeston, all of Partridge Hill.

The average mortality from famine for several years past, according to the Neue Presse, aggregated 50,000. Laborers' wages range from 8 to 16 cents a day, and women earn from 4 to 8 cents a day. The peasants rarely taste bread and exist chiefly on a soup, the principal ingredients of which are water and herbs.

Famine in Galicia.

Vienna, Aug. 7.—After a special investigation among the agricultural laborers in eastern Galicia, the Neue Presse draws a gloomy picture of the miserable conditions which led to the existing strike.

The average mortality from famine for several years past, according to the Neue Presse, aggregated 50,000. Laborers' wages range from 8 to 16 cents a day, and women earn from 4 to 8 cents a day.
